Welcome to the Wild Pacific Trail!

For your safety, it is strongly recommended that you stay on the marked trail. Failure to do so or walking on the rocks below may result in serious injury or death. The trail is restricted to daylight hours only. As this is a wilderness park area, please use caution to protect the environment, yourself and other trail users. Trail may be unsafe during storm surf or high winds may cause tree blow downs. Visitors use trail at their own risk.

CAUTION: You may encounter bears, cougars or wolves anywhere on the West Coast. If you encounter a wild animal while hiking, stay calm and talk to the animal in a confident voice.

PETS: Keep dogs on a leash at all times
