

Volkssport Association of British Columbia CVF Director's Walk

PT 325 Revelstoke –10 km – Rated 1B

The walk begins at the Revelstoke Visitor Centre, 301 Victoria Road W, Revelstoke, BC V0E 2S0, between Boyle Ave. and Campbell Ave. It is open year round. Washrooms plus ample parking are available. The route passes many historic buildings, a few of which are highlighted below. A detailed brochure, "Heritage Walking Tour of Historic Revelstoke" can be obtained at the Visitor Centre.

1. From the Visitor Centre walk out to Victoria Road and turn right. Turn right on Campbell Avenue. Turn right on 1st St. W. Note the Revelstoke Museum at the corner of Boyle Ave.
2. Continue on 1st St, turn right on Pearson St. to Victoria. Note the Revelstoke Railway Museum on the other side of the road and tracks. Well worth a visit.
3. Turn left on Victoria, left on Ford St. and right on 1st St. The house on the corner of Ford and 1st (#904 1st) was built in 1909 and is noteworthy for its round pillars, original front door and leaded windows.
4. Continue past Wales St. to house #1221 on the left. It was built in 1897, a good example of the Queen Anne Style of architecture. It was painstakingly restored in the 1990s. (1.5 km)
5. Turnaround and return to Wales St. Turn right on Wales, turn left on 2nd St and turn right on Kootenay Ave. On your right is the Revelstoke Court House. Built in 1912 in the Neoclassic style, the four great pillars are each a solid piece of marble. Inside are copper chandeliers each weighing 300 pounds.
6. Turn left on Douglas St., turn left on Charles St. and turn right on 3rd St. Turn left on Ford St. and turn right on 2nd St. On your left after crossing Pearson St is the Anglican Church and Manse built in 1896. It is the only one of Revelstoke's early churches still in use.
7. Continue on 2nd St to Campbell Ave. passing several more noteworthy early buildings. Cross Campbell and turn right to walk down the left side of Campbell. After crossing 4th St you will pass the Firehall and Museum and then the Revelstoke Community and Aquatic Centre. (3.3 km)
8. After the road curves left, cross at the pedestrian crossing and continue on what is now Centennial Park Drive; the Columbia River is on your right. Soon you will come to the beginning of the Greenbelt Pathway on the right.
9. Follow the path which winds by the Columbia and Illecillewaet Rivers on your right and the Power Plant and Saw Mill on your left. There are several interesting historical panels along the trail.
10. Turn right on the 'Heron Loop' gravel trail which leads to the Mark Kingsbury Memorial Bridge. *It was built on old CPR abutments across the Illecillewaet River and opened in 2012. (5.7 km)
11. Turnaround and return to the Greenbelt Parkway, turn right and continue for about 1 km until it passes under 4th St. E. Curve to the left back to 4th St and walk along the right side of 4th St. Cross the road at a pedestrian crossing at the junction with Townley St and continue on the left side of 4th St. (8.3 km)
12. Turn left on Robson Ave., turn right on 5th St, turn left on McArthur Ave and turn right on 6th St. Again in this area you will see several historic streetscapes dating from the early 20th century.
13. Turn right on Mackenzie Ave. This is Revelstoke's 'Main Street' and virtually every building has a fascinating history.
14. Follow Mackenzie all the way to where it ends at Victoria Road. Turn left, cross Campbell Ave to return to the start point. (9.6 km)

We hope you enjoyed your walk!
