The walk begins at the Revelstoke Visitor Centre, 301 Victoria Road W, Revelstoke, BC V0E 2S0, between Boyle Ave. and Campbell Ave. It is open year round. Washrooms plus ample parking are available. The route passes many historic buildings, a few of which are referred to below. A detailed brochure, "Heritage Walking Tour of Historic Revelstoke" can be obtained at the Visitor Centre.

1. From the Visitor Centre walk out to Victoria Road and turn right. Cross Campbell Avenue and turn right to walk down the left side of Campbell. After crossing 4th St you will pass the Firehall and Museum and then the Revelstoke Community and Aquatic Centre.
2. After the road curves left, cross at the pedestrian crossing and continue on Centennial Park Drive; the Columbia River is on your right. Soon you will come to the beginning of the Greenbelt Pathway on the right. (1.1 km)
3. Follow the Pathway which winds by the Columbia and Illecillewaet Rivers on your right and the Power Plant and Saw Mill on your left. There are several interesting historical panels along the trail.
4. You will see a sign to the Mark Kingsbury Memorial Bridge. Do not take that trail but continue along the Greenbelt Parkway for about ½ km until you see a skateboard park and playground on the left. Turn left on the path that passes them (washrooms on left) and come to Edward Street (unsigned). Turn right. (3.3 km)
5. Turn left on 8th St., turn right on Vernon Ave., and turn left on 6th St E to Mackenzie Ave. Again in this area you will see several historic streetscapes dating from the early 20th century.
6. Turn right on Mackenzie Ave. This is Revelstoke's 'Main Street' and virtually every building has a fascinating history.
7. Follow Mackenzie all the way to where it ends at Victoria Road. Turn left, cross Campbell Ave to return to the start point. (5.4 km)

We hope you enjoyed your walk!
